9. Advisory vote on the remuneration report of the Company prepared under the provisions of Act LXVII of 2019 on Encouraging Long-Term Shareholder Engagement and amendments of further regulations for harmonization purposes.
10. Granting a proxy of attorney for the company registry process.

Conditions for exercising the right to add items to the agenda of the General Assembly:

If the shareholders holding jointly at least 1 (one) per cent of the votes in the Company submit a proposal for the addition to the agenda, in accordance with the rules on the agenda's details, or a draft resolution on a point included or to be included in the agenda, to the Board of Directors within 8 (eight) days of the publication of the notice convening the General Assembly, the Board of Directors shall publish a notice on the added agenda and the draft resolutions submitted by the shareholders after the proposal has been communicated to the Board of Directors. The item indicated in the notice shall be deemed to be included in the agenda.

The exercise of voting rights is subject to the conditions laid down in the Articles of Association:

The right to attend the General Assembly and other rights attached to the share may be exercised by the shareholder whose name is entered in the share register at 5:00 p.m. on the second working day prior to the opening day of the General Assembly (closing of the share register) and the Company has received the original copy of the shareholder's certificate of ownership. The shareholder shall also be deemed to have duly delivered the certificate of ownership to the Company if the shareholder delivers it to the Company in a verifiable manner by the close of the share register and also delivers the original copy of the certificate of ownership to the Company no later than the beginning of the General Assembly. The burden of proof of delivery of the certificate of ownership shall be on the shareholder.

The certificate of ownership shall be issued by the securities account manager upon the shareholder's request. The certificate of ownership must contain the company name of the Company, the type of share, the number of shares, the company name and signature of the securities account manager, the name (company name) and the place of residence (registered office) of the shareholder.

After the issuance of the certificate of ownership, the securities account manager may only transfer changes to the share in the securities account if the certificate of ownership is simultaneously revoked. The data contained in the certificate of ownership sent to the Company must be the same as the actual data at the time of the closing of the share register. If, after the submission of the certificate of ownership and before the closing of the share register, there is a change in the number or other data of shares held by the shareholder, the shareholder must submit a new certificate of ownership to the Company in accordance with these Articles of Association.

The closing of the share register prior to the General Assembly does not restrict the right of the person registered in the share register to transfer his/her shares after the closing of the share register. The transfer of shares prior to the opening day of the General Assembly shall not exclude the right of a person entered in the share register to attend the General Assembly and exercise the rights to which he/she is entitled as a shareholder, provided that the shareholder has been entered in the share register no later than the second business day prior to the opening day of the General Assembly.

No certificate of ownership is required for the exercise of shareholder rights if eligibility is established by way of a shareholder correspondence.
